

Joop Wijn appointed as Chair of C&A BV Supervisory Board

Zug, Switzerland, 19 December 2025 – A new Chair of the C&A BV Supervisory Board, Joop Wijn, has been appointed from 1 January 2026. He succeeds Allan Leighton, who has stepped down as Chair after six years of service.

Joop has a broad and distinguished background in executive management, corporate governance and government. He currently chairs the Supervisory Board of insurer a.s.r. and is a board member of Euronext and NIBC Bank. Previously, he served as Secretary of Finance and Minister of Economic Affairs in the Netherlands, in addition to executive roles including as Adyen's Chief Strategy and Risk Officer and ABN AMRO's Head of Corporate Banking.

Boudewijn Beerkens, CEO of COFRA Holding, parent company of C&A BV, said: “Joop brings a wealth of experience over many years to the role of Chair of C&A BV's Supervisory Board, and we are confident he will play a pivotal role in the future development of the business.”

We also thank Allan for his six years of valuable service as Chair of C&A in Europe. His leadership skills and strong retail experience came to the fore during the pandemic but also in overseeing the subsequent modernisation of the brand and store footprint. We wish him every success in the future.”

About COFRA Holding

COFRA Holding AG is a privately held group of companies active in various business sectors, including asset management (Anthos Fund & Asset Management), private equity (Bregal), fashion retail (C&A), real estate investments (Redevco), clean energy (Sunrock) and sustainable food (Dalsem, Ontario Plants Propagation). Headquartered in Zug, Switzerland, the group employs more than 60,000 people across its business operations in Europe, the Americas and Asia. Each business operates independently while striving to be a “force for good” in the world – a guiding principle that has characterised the Brenninkmeijer family owners' activities for six generations, since the founding of C&A in 1841.
