

Dalsem strengthens the GreenV group

Waddinxveen, 2 September 2026 - GreenV and Dalsem announce the completion of an agreement to join forces to offer improved horticulture solutions to growers and investors worldwide.

GreenV delivers integrated high-tech greenhouse projects and consists of a group of specialized companies that work intensively together. Dalsem brings more than 90 years of experience in building high-tech greenhouses to the GreenV group of companies.

"At GreenV we are united by a passion for horticultural technology and a relentless pursuit of top quality. With Dalsem joining GreenV, we can further elevate and tailor our offer to customers worldwide with even better integrated solutions," says Martijn Punt, CEO GreenV.

"The combination of Dalsem's experience over many decades with GreenV's scale and expertise globally is positive news for Dalsem, our suppliers and customers worldwide. We look forward to continued success within the GreenV family of businesses," commented Frank van der Gelt, CEO Dalsem.

Financial details will not be disclosed.
